² I believe that the discussion at today's meeting will be consistent with Wis. Stat. §758.13(2), which specifies that the duties of the Council include the following:

(b) Survey and study the organization, jurisdiction and methods of administration and operation of all the courts of this state.

(d) Receive, consider and in its discretion investigate suggestions from any source pertaining to the administration of justice and to make recommendations.

(e) Keep advised concerning the decisions of the courts relating to the procedure and practice therein and concerning pending legislation affecting the organization, jurisdiction, operation, procedure and practice of the courts [Emphasis supplied].

publications like the Wisconsin Law Journal. I am very pleased to report that the State Bar has informed us that it is receptive to that suggestion. Accordingly, I have appointed a Committee by the name of “The Judicial Council Corner Committee,” which will be chaired by Margo Kirchner. Other members of the “Corner” Committee will be named later this Spring. At our meeting today, we will hear two reports regarding the “Corner.”

- III. Margo Kirchner will report on an article which she is preparing for the inaugural “Corner” column for inclusion in the Wisconsin Lawyer. In this article, Margo will report to the Bar on the purpose of the “Judicial Council’s Corner” and on a brief history of the Council. I asked that Margo base this history in part on the following documents: 1) April Southwick’s History of the Council, dated March 17, 2017; 2) A report of the National Center for State Courts, which contains the early history of the Council; and 3) June 2017 Summary of Council Projects and Accomplishments. Because all members of the Council should be fully aware of the Council’s history, I am supplying copies of the foregoing with this Agenda.
- IV. Judge Thomas Hruz will report on his suggestion for a potential second article for the “Judicial Council Corner,” to be published later this Spring. With all of the changes which are being made to the electronic filing of appeals, it is my understanding that Judge Hruz’s article will consist in part of a checklist which can be used by appellate practitioners in preparing for and prosecuting appeals in the electronic age.
- V. Committee Reports.
 - (a) Evidence & Civil Procedure Committee.
 - (b) Criminal Procedure Committee.
 - (c) Appellate Procedure Committee.
- VI. Adjournment.
